LouAnn Foster, 93, of Amboy, passed away on December 31, 2019. She requested no visitation. A memorial service will be held on Monday, January 20, at 4:00 p.m. at Jackson Lake Lutheran Church in Amboy. Interment will be in Vernon Center Cemetery at a later date. Woodland Hills Funeral Home of Mankato is handling arrangements. She is survived by her children (the Yaeger kids) David, Dianne, Patricia, Richard, and Susan; grandchildren Christina, Kurt, Derek (Jessie), Richard (Kayla), Daniel, Bryan, and Robert; great granddaughters Elaina and Stella (in February), brother Robert (Bette), and cousins, nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by her parents Ellis "Nubs" and Cora (Olson) Kinney, husband Lyle "Buck" Foster, and brother, Jerry.

LouAnn was born April 15, 1926, in Amboy, MN. She was baptized and confirmed at Jackson Lake Lutheran Church, graduated from Amboy High School in 1944, and attended business school in Mankato. She married Robert Yaeger and later divorced. She married Lyle Foster and lived in Vernon Center and Blue Earth and returned to Amboy after his death. Since 2013, she has lived at Monarch Meadows Senior Community, Oak Terrace Assisted Living, and Ecuman Pathstone long-term care. She worked various office, retail, and restaurant jobs. She was a homemaker with great sewing, baking, and cooking skills. She also enjoyed reading autobiographies and pioneer stories of the old west, playing cards and board games, jigsaw puzzles, growing African violets, and watching birds, especially cardinals and hummingbirds.
