She was an avid baker and especially enjoyed cookies. She had a wonderful and mischievous sense of humor that could bring fun to any situation. She loved Christmas music and played it year round. She was also able to express her creativity with the rubber stamping, photocrafting, and velvet embossing business she owned with her daughter. She enjoyed teaching others the magic of velvet embossing.

She is survived by her daughter, Mindy of North Mankato; her son, Michael (Heidi) of Bismarck, North Dakota; and her brother, Arden (Gloria) of Aurora, Colorado.
